

Do not approve cell phone use during flight. Cell phones would enable terrorists to coordinate a plan of action more effectively. It would make an already tense environment even more stressful. Psgr.'s give us a hard time now turning off their cell phones during our safety demo on the ground, during an emergency it would turn into a free for all.